The first time I came to the Herault, After a ten-hour train ride from Paris to Montpellier, I caught a bus to the old village where my friend Sara, had bought a house. When I got there an hour and a half later, I had the sense that I'd moved back 700 years. Sarah's house is made of stone, a few hundred years old, typical of the kind of places for sale cheaply here. Like actually all the village houses, it is attached to the neighboring ones –so although the village is small; it feels heavily populated, everybody living close together. Always somebody leaning out of the window or sitting in front of the door.

Inside, it is dark and cool. When Sarah bought the house, it had cold running water, some missing floors and the fireplace didn't work.
